

The National Agency for Investment Development (ANDI) has published new promotional brochures mainly intended to the investors .

Published in three languages (Arabic, French and English), these brochures intend mainly to inform succinctly the investors about the investment environment in Algeria

The cards contained in these brochures present for each constituent the main information related to:

- The présentation of Algeria ;
- The presentation of ANDI, its missions and its decentralized structures through out the national territory;
- The different schemes of investment encouragement;
- The main land markets ;

- The strategies and policies of the economic relaunch ;
- The expanding sectors ;
- The production factors costs;
- A guide summarizing the investment procedures and formalities used in Algeria and other useful information for national and foreign potential investors.

These promotional supports are designed and updated to reflect the changing economic and legal environment in Algeria in order to ensure in the best conditions, the tasks of information, communication, support and promotion of investment assigned to the Agency.