

Information days

"Measures to support investment in the wilaya of the south and the high plateaux."

ANDI launches, from the last week of the month, a series of information days across the country, entitled "Measures to support investment in the wilaya of the south and the high plateaux."

These events are primarily a wide distribution of the program to encourage investment under the scheme of areas whose development requires the contribution of the State provided for in Ordinance 01-03, as amended and supplemented, on the development of investment, and enhance other advantages granted by law for investments initiated in the wilaya and South the high plateaux.

In addition, these meetings will help to disseminate more and to submit, progressively the attractiveness of these areas by the investment opportunities in the wilayas involved in these meetings, and opportunities available.

Operators and businessmen across the country will be invited to take part in these meetings, but also representatives of institutions and national bodies such as local direction of wilaya, local universities, chambers Algerian trade, investment funds of wilaya, business and international organizations such as chambers of commerce of Algeria and foreign countries which exist in Algeria.